

UREY WOODSON TALKS IT OVER

Kentucky Editor On the Political Situation.

THE LOCAL LAY OF THE LAND

Democratic National Committeeman From the Blue Grass State Happens Into New York and While There Gives Out Some Political Observations Which May Interest Followers of the Game Out This Way.

New York, Aug. 12.—Editor Urey Woodson, who runs the Owensboro Messenger and the Paducah News Democrat, and is the member for Kentucky of the Democratic national committee, dropped into town, and said it was just a coincidence that he happened upon Roger Sullivan, member for Illinois of that body, who came to New York to meet his wife, who is on her way here from Europe.

"There is not much doing in politics in Kentucky this year," said Mr. Woodson. "There are only the congressional elections, for the governor and legislature and county officers hold over until next year. As for the congressional districts, there are only two in Kentucky that are at all debatable which the Republicans now hold, the Ninth and Tenth. We are sure of carrying the former, and it is quite possible that we shall get the Tenth."

"Insurgency is insurging in Kentucky just as well as in some of the northern and western states. In the greater part of the south the insurgent movement in the Republican party does not amount to much, because the party being small and powerless, has to hang together in order to get what spoils may be coming from the national distribution, but the insurgent movement is just as strong relatively among the Kentucky Republicans as it is anywhere in the north. The tariff is answering for its own sins and some others."

"Governor Willson? Oh, he is getting on about as poorly as could be. He is as vacillating and weak as ever. You see the whole trouble in Kentucky is that while in power the Democrats got so bad the people turned them out and the Republicans have been in two years. They have proved so much worse that the people are in a hurry to turn them out and get back some good men."

"No, we are not talking much about our own politics in Kentucky just now. We are talking about other people's politics."

"It is a peculiar thing that while you have been complaining of a drouth here, the section of Kentucky where I live, which is on the Ohio river, has been almost drowned out by rains. The damage to crops in western Kentucky is general, tobacco, corn and wheat suffering, principally the first. But the farmers out there can make better afford to meet such a catastrophe than they could a few years back. Out there during the last few years they have been clearing $100 an acre on their tobacco lands, and mind you, this is clear of everything, including taxes and the wear and tear on implements. All the farmers in Kentucky have money in the bank, and it is a rare thing to hear of one of them borrowing."

CAUSED A "RUN"

Mule's Death Got Louisville Bank Into Trouble.

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 11.—A mule's death occasioned a run upon the South Louisville Deposit bank which for a time threatened to wreck the institution. A depositor purchased a mule, giving in payment a check for $75. That night the animal died. Suspecting that he had been duped, the purchaser stopped payment on the check. The payee presented the check just before the bank closed and payment was refused. He left the bank spreading the report that the bank had ceased payments.

Over 100 depositors were in line seeking to withdraw their savings when the bank opened in the morning. Only a wild dash from up-town in an auto by the president, Dr. Netherland, with currency, saved the situation. By noon, the real cause of the run being learned, it was stopped.

CERTAIN RESULTS

Many a Cloverport Citizen Knows How Sure They Are.

Nothing uncertain about the work of Doan's Kidney Pills in Cloverport. There is plenty of positive proof of this in the testimony of citizens. Such evidence should convince the most skeptical doubter. Read the following statement:

J. C. Weatherholt, High St., Cloverport, Ky., says: "Two years ago I did not think it possible that I could ever be well again, in fact, I had settled up my affairs. I cannot fully describe the misery I endured from pains through my back. Whenever I stooped pains became so sharp that it really felt as if someone were thrusting a knife into my kidneys. I was often very dizzy, dark spots floated before my eyes and I had to grasp something to keep from falling. My joints became swollen to twice their natural size and I lost weight rapidly until I was a mere skeleton. The doctors' medicines and the many guaranteed cures that I tried, did not help me and finally it was my good fortune to hear about Doan's Kidney Pills. I immediately procured a box at Fisher's Drug Store and I was greatly surprised with the results received. Before I had taken the contents of the second box, there was a marked improvement and I continued using them until I was completely cured. I am now well and I give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit."

BIG SPRING.

Mrs. Ada Meador spent several days last week with Mrs. A. D. McCans at Elizabethtown.

Mrs. Bob McGlothlin and Mrs. Ada Drury, of Irvington, were the guests of Miss Sue Board last week.

Miss Fannie Hardaway, of near Bewleyville, is spending the week with Miss Zelma Strother.

The social club will meet with Miss Sue Board the 18th. On last Wednesday the club met at Miss Myrtle Moorman's and spread lunch in the yard. All reported a fine time.

The meeting will not begin here Thursday evening as had been announced on account of not having closed the meeting at Custer.

B. S. Clarkson left last week for a month's trip to Chicago and other points.

Mrs. C. B. Witt is in Louisville visiting her father, Mr. Vogt.

T. R. Moorman has sold to Pate Dowell 150 acres of land.

J. B. Carter went to Vine Grove Sunday to see H. Meyer, who has been quite sick.

Miss Agnes Head, of Louisville, is the guest of Miss Edna Dowell.

Miss Lucy King leaves the 20th for Peoria, Ill., to visit her sister, Mrs. Tapping.

BEVERLY HAS A PROGRAM FIXED

Aldrich, Cannon and Ballinger to Be Cast Overboard

THAT IS NOW THE LATEST WORD

In Trimming Ship For the November Voyage, the Republicans Have Decided to Lighten the Vessel of What the Leaders Consider Incumbrances, and It Is Declared That Said Incumbrances Acquire in Their Fate.

Beverly, Mass., Aug. 13.—If the plans of the new leaders of the Republican party bear fruit, and the leaders think they will, Speaker Joseph G. Cannon will not again wield the gavel in the house of representatives. He is marked for political destruction. If other plans of those same leaders do not fail, Secretary of the Interior Ballinger will retire from President Taft's cabinet shortly after the congressional investigating committee reports next month.

Ballinger was marked for destruction and the end, it is said here, is already in sight. It has become plain that Nelson W. Aldrich will not again be a candidate for the senate from Rhode Island. He, too, was set down by the new leaders of the party as one who must go. The word went forth some time ago that Aldrich must not run again. It has been made known definitely that he will not run. In the retirement of Mr. Ballinger, the elimination of Speaker Cannon and the withdrawal of Senator Aldrich from public life, the leaders feel that they have trimmed the Republican ship for its voyage toward the fall elections. They think that from the shoulders of President Taft three burdens which he has carried long have been removed. Some go so far as to say that in no other way can they face the coming fight with any chance of success. They do not say that Mr. Taft has been responsible for all these acts, but they point with pride to the good effect they will have on the country. It is understood in Beverly at least, that in Ballinger, Speaker Cannon and Senator Aldrich, the insurgents have found more material for their battles with the regulars than in anything the Taft administration has done or failed to do. It is said in some places that the discouraging results in Kansas and Iowa are to be attributed to the fact that the insurgents harped much upon the connection between the administration and these three men.

Neither Secretary Ballinger, Senator Aldrich nor Speaker Cannon found his elimination tasteful, it is said here. The senator announced his retirement months ago, but for a time there was a feeling that he might run again, just the same, if pressed to do so. This is what the west thought, according to information that came to Beverly. And on that fact the west pondered much, not to the advantage of the Republicans. Secretary Ballinger has always declared that he would not retire. But both he and Aldrich were persuaded, so the story goes, to sacrifice themselves for the good of the party. Cannon by his speeches in Kansas, some of those in touch with affairs declare, did much to help the insurgents gain a victory. That fact perhaps was the last straw that determined those who are attempting the rejuvenation of the party to tell Mr. Cannon, if he does not know it already, that he must not run for speaker again. It is said on behalf of Cannon that he has already told close friends that he was not to be considered in the contest for the speakership if the next house goes Republican. If the leaders prevail, the country will know long before the elections in November that the administration has done with Ballinger, Aldrich and Cannon.

Will Not Get Here

The News received word this week from Mrs. S. E. Lowry Parker, of 2723 W. Jefferson St., saying that she intended to be present at the barbecue but could not come on account of her health. She writes as follows: "I expected to be present Thursday and say a few words; first to the Masonic fraternity, second to Breckenridge my native county. I would request the band to play 'Home Sweet Home', and 'Dixie'. I have several old friends in your city, Mr. and Mrs. Abe Skillman and others I should like to see. It has been a long time since I have had the pleasure of meeting them."

Gov. McCreary Announces.

Gov. McCreary's announcement as a candidate for Governor is as follows: To the Democrats of Kentucky: I have received so many letters requesting me to announce that I am a candidate for Governor, and so many Democrats have in person said to me that if I am nominated I will have the unanimous support of the Democrats of Kentucky, and such a large number of newspapers have published editorials suggesting and endorsing me as a proper candidate for Governor, that I have decided to announce that I am a candidate for Governor subject to the action of the Democratic party.

I believe the party which has honored me so often and to which I have belonged all my life, and whose principles I have ever advocated and upheld is entitled to my very best services whenever needed or demanded. I have always been in favor of the straight, pure Democracy, law and order, honesty and economy in public administration and educational advancement, and my record and my efforts to serve the people faithfully and efficiently I hope and believe are well known to the people of Kentucky. At the proper time I shall be pleased to make speeches in behalf of Democratic principles and Democratic Government and Democratic victory in every part of the State and every county if desired, and I will be very grateful for the support of my brother Democrats.

JAMES B. MCCREARY.

Course in Agriculture

The Western Kentucky State Normal School offers a practical course of study in Elementary Agriculture. Demonstration and actual work done on school farm. Teachers will have an opportunity to prepare for teaching the subject. Great opportunities offered young men who expect to make farming a life work. Course begins Sept. 6, 1910. Write for information. Address, H. H. Cherry, President, Bowling Green, Ky.

Nervous

"I was very nervous," writes Mrs. Mollie Mirse, of Carrsville, Ky., "had palpitation of the heart, and was irregular."

"On the advice of Mrs. Hattie Cain I took 2 bottles of Cardui and it did me more good than any medicine I ever took. I am 44 years old and the change has not left me, but I am lots better since taking Cardui."

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Cardui is advertised and sold by its loving friends. The lady who advised Mrs. Mirse to take Cardui, had herself been cured of serious female trouble, by Cardui, so she knew what Cardui would do.

If Cardui cured Mrs. Cain and Mrs. Mirse, it surely will cure you too. Won't you try it? Please do.
